La Barrita — Brooklyn, USA

A month old, La Barrita brings the Argentine parrilla to heart of Brooklyn Heights. Offering traditional, grilled Argentinean steaks, the menu also incorporates unique flavors from founder and restaurant veteran Sebastian Cardona's coastal hometown of Mar del Plata, Argentina. Boasting only local grass-fed, hormone-free meats and seafood, plates can be paired with the many fine Argentine wines on the list, including rare Malbecs from acclaimed small producers. Popular menu items include empanadas, traditional matambre (stuffed flank steak), sweetbreads and grilled veal breast. Facebook Page.
