

Robb Report

Jet Off in a Private Airbus A340 for a 22-Day Trip around the Globe

Juliana Distefano

August 3, 2016

New for 2016, French travel operator Safrans du Monde is offering a 22-day, all-inclusive tour around the world, from November 19 through December 10. Starting in Paris, passengers will board a spacious Airbus A340 and travel to 10 of the world's top destinations in South America, the South Pacific, Southeast Asia, and the Mediterranean. From snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef to trekking through the Imperial City of Brazil, this exclusive air cruise will offer guests the chance to form once-in-a-lifetime memories. At each stop along the way, travelers will stay in the finest local hotels and enjoy guided excursions and explorations of nearby natural landscapes. Two travel classes are available: The basic L'Espace Safrans starts from roughly $25,000 per person, while La Première Classe is priced from roughly $51,000 per person. (safransdumonde.com)

