While it's hard to shop for your boss or mom during the holidays, finding the perfect gift for the little ones on your list can be just as challenging. While we're sure they want toys and tech gifts, we're also sure their parents have that department covered. So instead of adding a toy to your shopping cart, try giving them the gift of style, aka clothes and accessories that will make them the most fashionable kid you know.

Selecting the perfect gift for kids doesn't have to be complicated, we have you covered. From chic jackets to adorable backpacks they'll want to carry around to accessories their parents might not pick up, there's something for everyone.

So, whether you have an outdoorsy explorer or fashion editor in the making, here are 30 gifts fashionable kids will love.
